ARRANGING TO VOTE

Women Will Name a Few Candidates.

THEY WANT REPRESENTATION

The Daughters of America and the Daughters of Liberty Have Taken the Subject to Heart, and Propose to Enter the Race—Instruction to be Given in the Lodge Room.

It now seems certain that many ladies will vote in the various wards of the city at the spring election.

For a long time there was no indication of a move in this direction, and when progressive towns in all parts of Ohio were naming their women candidates, East Liverpool did not have a word to say. There was a small move about the first of the year, but it amounted to nothing, and such people as manifested any interest in the matter left the ladies to themselves. Now a new project has been set on foot, and when the women who decide to vote drop into a polling place they will be provided with the necessary information and instruction. The movement has been set on foot by the patriotic orders, having its birth among the ladies. The Daughters of Liberty and the Daughters of America have decided to select candidates from their ranks, and to give them the solid support of each order. The candidates to be selected will each be given a good start by their personal popularity, and no effort will be spared to make the move most successful. All the influence which the orders command will be brought into the campaign. As much of the plan as has leaked out says that the issue will be the principles of the orders; that is, that they want a good school system, the Bible read in every room, and the American flag floating over every building. They think that the members of the other patriotic orders have never made an attempt to gain positions on the board, and it now remains for them to assert what they believe to be nothing more than a right, since the law has granted them the power to vote. The campaign will be commenced as soon as the ladies decide upon their candidates, and it is probable that these will be announced within the next few days. It may be a week, but they do not propose to lose any more time than is absolutely necessary. It is said in this connection that the ladies have learned a trick or two in politics, and will spring a surprise upon the public. Several names are mentioned as proposed seekers for political preferment, but as there is nothing definite the NEWS REVIEW refrains from uttering a word of what it has heard.

If the selections are in line with the rumors, the ladies are women who have gained a reputation as leading lights in the secret society world of the city. Another interesting fact is that there will be a general class for instruction in each lodge of the different orders before election day rolls around. The ladies will be taught how to vote, boxes being placed in the lodge rooms for the purpose of practice. They will mark the ballots and deposit their little slips of paper just as the men do, and if the day is fine there will likely be a number of lady voters at the polls. In connection with this move they may glean some valuable information from the following:

Any woman born or naturalized in the United States who is twenty-one years of age or more, may vote for school officers only; provided she has been a resident of Ohio for one year or more, and of the county 30 days, and of the precinct where she wishes to vote 20 days. If, however, she be a married woman and makes a bona fide change of residence with her family from one precinct to another in the same county, she may vote although she has not resided in the new home 20 days. No registration or other preliminary steps are necessary in this county. A foreign born, unnaturalized woman can not vote even though her husband is a voter.

When the voting place is reached, approach the officer who has charge of the school ballots; tell him your name, your own name, not your husband's. He will give you a ballot and you will go alone to any one of the booths not already occupied and there mark and fold your ballot. Every ticket on the ballot will have a circle at the top. Choose the ticket you wish to vote, and if you wish to vote for all the names on the ticket make an X in the circle above it. Make no other mark on the ballot. If you wish to vote for names appearing on different tickets don't mark in any circle, but make an X in the square place at the left of each name you wish to vote for. Make no other marks on the ballot. Be careful not to make any more X marks than there are school officers to be elected in your precinct or your vote will not count. Fold up the ballot so as to conceal the marks, but leave the signatures on the back of the ballot in view. You must not show your ballot to anyone, and you will not be permitted to converse with anyone except the election officers while you are inside the guard-rail. If you are unable to mark your ballot, you will state the reason under oath to the election officers and they will assist you. When your ballot is thus marked and folded, return it to the officer having charge of the ballot box and pass at once outside of the guard-rail. Do not cut, tear or in any manner mutilate your ballot. If you spoil a ballot, return it to the officer and get another. You will vote in the same place and same box with the men who are now being watched.

THE FIRST.

Mrs. D. McDonald Nominated by the Prohibitionists.

The Prohibitionists nominated a ticket last night the most interesting part of which was the selection of Mrs. D. McDonald to make the race for school director. For council the nominations were Grant McKinnon, W. S. George, Jr., John Aten. The other member of the board of education was Murray Nickle.

STAY IN YOUR SEAT.

How a Lady Would Have Conductors on the Motor Lines.

MR. EDITOR—In your issue of last Friday a citizen complained of being dragged some distance while trying to board a street car and the motorman was blamed as neglectful. The real fault was not in the motorman, but in the company not having conductors on the road. Surely this is a paying line, and the public is entitled to the accommodation, especially ladies, in the way of having their fare collected, and being assisted on and off cars. We see only one remedy for securing this, and that is, that every person entering a car remain in his or her seat and compel the motorman to collect the fare. This would very soon tire the company, and conductors would speedily be restored. It is a right the public ought to demand. The public is not an accommodation to the street railway, but directly opposite, and any company with a proper sense of propriety would not thus impose upon the public.

HOME FROM A TRIP.

President Hughes Spent Three Weeks in Potting Towns.

President Hughes, of the Brotherhood, is home from a trip to the potting towns.

He went as far east as Trenton, and found that the reported reduction there has no foundation. When he got to Akron he discovered that the people were anxious to help the pottery, and were willing to subscribe stock or give the company a bonus. He saw the potters at Tiffin, and found that while there had been some trouble because of the reduction in the selling price of the ware, since the compact was broken, all is now right. In regard to the Elizabeth, N. J., trouble he was unable to say other than that the owners of the pottery there have written to East Liverpool for men on other occasions. The potters there are members of the Trenton union. The trouble is over a new shape.

Condemned Congress.

A business man who delights in politics was showing the following special from Albany, N. Y., to his friends today.

In the assembly Mr. Hennessy, a member of the Democratic minority, presented the following: "Resolved, that the legislature of the State of New York congratulate the people of the United States upon their release from the menace to public progress and general prosperity which existed while the Fifty-third Congress had the power to make laws for the nation." Mr. Foley the Democratic leader sprang into the aisle as the reading was finished, shouting, "I object, I object," but the resolution was rushed through.

Another Chance For Morris.

T. J. Morris, the Wellsville boy who won in the competitive examination for an appointment to the naval academy at Annapolis in this city last June, but failed when he went before the examining board at the school in September, was appointed by Doctor Ikert on Monday a short time before congress adjourned. Morris is a bright young man, and his friends believe he will pass the next examination with ease. He is well known in Wellsville, where he resides.

MAY BE ANOTHER MAN

Witzeman Steadily Gaining Sympathy.

THE BONES BEING EXAMINED

The Leetonia Murder Mystery May Take Another Turn—More Suspects—A Peculiar Explanation—The Accused is Making Friends.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, March 6.—The only new development in the Conkle case is the most important of the many reported to date, and may result in the release of Witzeman and the arrest of a few men who are now being watched.

The failure of the authorities to find the body of the missing monument man, and the conflicting testimony at the preliminary hearing have worked to the advantage of Witzeman, and the danger of the suspects.

That the wrong man is in the county jail seems to be a well founded opinion, yet there seems no one to take his place unless a few suspects at Leetonia can be included in that list. These men were prominently connected with the first suspicions, but when the officers got after the man now in confinement no attention was given them. In mentioning the case it was noticed that one man tangled himself by stating that he had been to see a horse which he owned when accounting for his whereabouts at a certain time. When the fact was developed that the horse had been dead several weeks, he said he had been there for the purpose of burning the body as the authorities had ordered. Then they asked him how he chance to have blood on his shirt, and he said the blood was from the horse. This, the authorities stated, was an impossibility, since the blood would have congealed long before the time when the suspect was seen coming from that direction. Another man is also suspected, and if more evidence can be found there may be an arrest or two in a few days. The last suspicion concerning the disposition of the body has resulted in a vast amount of examination by the authorities, and the positive identification of the bones found as being portions of a human hand and foot. Not content with the result of local investigation the authorities sent the parts to Cleveland, where an expert opinion will be rendered. It is generally believed in Leetonia, so a message from there this morning states, that the officers have the wrong man in Witzeman, but there are few to express an opinion of any kind. They are loth to believe that the men suspected had anything to do with the case, yet feel certain that no efforts should be spared to clear the good name of Leetonia. If Conkle was murdered in Leetonia and the murderer is around that part of the county the people want him arrested and punished. Sympathy for Witzeman is increasing every day. Although the authorities are not condemned for moving in the matter the belief is gaining ground that no arrests should have been made until the body was in their possession. Sensational rumors are the order of the hour.

FLOATING THE PACIFIC.

A Big Force Working on the Damaged Craft.

The Stella Moran came to the wharf this morning after spending the night in the vicinity of the sunken Pacific, and the officer in command gave out the information that chains had been placed in position, and the boat had been raised as much as they could expect for the work done. The water, however, is still half way to the top of the bulkhead off the main deck. The John C. Fisher with a crew of 10 men, and the wrecking crew of the Pacific are working today to raise the boat. The officer believed that the Pacific would again plow the waves of the Ohio, but its owners must pay a goodly sum before she can float.

The company owning the barges sunk by the Onward at Walker's have decided that the loss will amount to $5,000 if they are not raised. It may be that no attempt will be made to save the cargo until low water comes again. The barges seem piled one upon the other, and an end of one is in the air. This serves as an excellent warning for other boats, and the wreck is not considered dangerous.

The Charley Hook has gone to Pittsburgh, where it will be put on the docks for repairs. The hole in the side of the boat is the only serious damage, but it is thought the repairs will not be completed in time to permit the return of the boat for wrecking work at the island.

The officers of the Stella Moran succeeded in enlisting 15 men in the city last night, and went to Babbs's island this morning. An attempt will be made to raise the model barges that went down in the channel at the upper end of the island. It is by no means an easy piece of work, but the officer in command believes they will be successful.

The Lizzie Bay went down last night and the Ben Hur went up today. The Iron Queen is the first boat out of Cincinnati, and will arrive here tomorrow. Tow boats were passing last night almost every hour, and this morning saw a large number go down. The shipment of coal is large.

Death of Mrs. J. B. Taylor.

Mrs. J. B. Taylor, of Hanover, departed this life at her home residence this morning. She leaves a husband and five children, three daughters and two sons, to mourn her loss. Our townsmen, Mr. Joseph Taylor, residing on Robinson street, went to the old home residence at Hanover this afternoon, accompanied by his wife and children. Deceased was 70 years of age. She was a consistent Christian woman, a member of the Christian church, and was highly esteemed in the community in which she lived. The funeral will take place from Hanover on Friday afternoon next, at 2 o'clock. The remains will be interred in Hanover church burial ground.

Temple in Hard Luck.

COLUMBUS, March 6.—Guard Temple, of Columbiana county, who was so seriously wounded by Convicts O'Day and Burke, who assaulted him some months ago, is again in bed under a physician's care. He has never thoroughly recovered from the assault and its attendant fight, in which he shot and killed O'Day. About two weeks ago he went on duty against the advice of the officers of the prison and his friends. Monday night he was advised by the deputy warden to take a layoff and go home, but it is likely he cannot go for some time.

Locked In a Building.

Two plumbers who had been repairing some pipes in the old Davidson building on Second street were accidentally locked in yesterday afternoon. They attempted to attract attention, but could make no one hear, and were compelled to remain until their predicament was discovered. Then they were released, but they had lost time, which every plumber knows is valuable, and now the interested parties are wondering if they will charge for the time they were prisoners.

Cases in Court.

The case of McGhee & Moore against McClain & Co., has been settled out of court. It was filed before Squire Rose, and involved $8.73.

The case of the Stroh Brewing company against Ferd Oschman will be tried tomorrow morning before Squire Rose—if there is no postponement.

Gospel Meeting.

Beginning with this evening a gospel meeting will be held in the Young Men's Christian association rooms every evening. The meeting will be a prayer and song service, and will last from 9 to 10 o'clock. The meetings will be held every evening.

Did Not Discharge Them.

A letter from John Rowe, president of the sanitary pottery at Titlowton, says there is nothing in the story that some of the employees were discharged because of the strike. No man was told to move on, and all could have worked if they so desired.

Closing the Meetings.

Evangelist Slatyer, who has been so successful in the Christian church revival services, will preach for the last time at the church tonight. He goes from this city to New Cumberland. There were three conversions last evening.

A Clogged Sewer.

The force of Engineer George was called to Summit lane this afternoon where a sewer is clogged, and the people were suffering no end of inconvenience.

The Complaint of Council Against the Board Made Plain—Each Member Will be Notified to Appear Before the Tribunal on Monday Evening.

Councilmen Marshall and Owen, the committee appointed to prepare the specific charges against the board of health, met this morning and prepared the following report:

To the Honorable City Council:

GENTLEMEN—We, the committee appointed to revise and make more definite the charges against the board of health, beg leave to submit the following:

First—In misrepresenting the city council to the court, as evidenced in the petition of John J. Purinton and others versus Charles Berg and others by certifying that the said council had refused to pay certain bills and thereby placing council in a false light before the court and the general public to the council's damage.

Second—In failing to do their whole duty in the controversy between the National House proprietor and the board of health by not connecting sewer as per their resolution and notices they agreed to do, and as the law gave them the power to do.

Third—In extravagant expenditure of public money; first, in bringing an action against C.

AND the Democrats failed to smash a trust.

THE people look to the Republicans in the next congress for relief, and they will probably get it as far as lies within their power.

IF the spring flower would only come as early as the spring candidate we could find cause for rejoicing even in this miserable weather.

IF any man has found a poor man who has been benefited by the new tariff let him make his name known. He will be a valuable curiosity.

IF the newspaper stories coming from Leetonia be true there are enough dead bodies lying loose around that place to convict the whole town of murder.

STARK county is becoming notorious because of its burglaries, highway robberies, and general cussedness. They need an application of the legal spanker in that part of the state.

IT is sincerely hoped that the people of Fayette county will have to pay liberally for the persecution of Colonel Coit. Prosecuting a military officer for doing his duty is a blot upon the state of Ohio.

WHEN the farmer glances over his sheep these days he can rest in the glad assurance that Democracy has given him the munificent figure of 16 cents a pound for the wool. Great is Democracy—as a shaver of prices.

IN THE GLOOM.

The great victory won by the misrepresentation and deceit of Democracy has worked for evil, and brought misfortune upon the heads of the poor chaps who hoped to win fame and honor in the spacious halls of congress.

They have had a hard time of it, but now they are retired to private life leaving their party like a ship without a rudder. It is floating on the ocean of partisan politics, wondering when the end will come. No captain stands upon the bridge of the poor old thing, and no definite course is laid for it to follow. The leaders are at loggerheads, and the rank and file are split into dissenting factions. Some are after free silver, others would pledge their lives to a good standard. There are as yet no Democratic candidates for the presidential nomination next year, and no man can tell who wants the unprofitable position. There may be light in the future for Democracy, but even the influential members of the party can see nothing particularly cheering just now. Gloom, black despair producing gloom is all they see these days.

THEY GET NO PAPERS NOW.

A short time ago the East End people were complaining because their Pittsburgh papers were cut and torn by being thrown from the morning train.

Now they are mad for they get no papers at all, the railroad men bringing them to the central station, where they are unloaded.

THE WIFE WRONGED.

A Strong Decree of Divorce For Mrs. Vanderbilt.

A FRENCH WOMAN CO-RESPONDENT

She Is a Queen of the Demi Monde in Paris—The Plaintiff Given Charge of the Children—A Very Large Income Is Settled on Her.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The decree of absolute divorce awarded Alva E. Vanderbilt, against William K. Vanderbilt, awards the custody of the children of the marriage to Mrs. Vanderbilt, it being provided that they shall be educated in the United States.

The action was begun on Jan. 3 last and the defendant put in answer denying the charges. Edmund Kelly was appointed referee to hear and determine, and filed his report on Jan. 18. On Feb. 5 and 25 hearings were had at special term of the supreme court before Justice Barrett on motions to confirm the report and on the question of alimony. Mr. Vanderbilt on the latter day tendered the plaintiff a deed whereby he conveyed property in satisfaction of claims for alimony. Joseph H. Choate, William Jay and William A. Duer were counsel for the plaintiff, and Anderson Howland and Murray were for the defendant.

The "woman in the case" is Nellie Neustreeter, one of the most beautiful of the queens of the Parisian demi-monde.

Mr. Vanderbilt is alleged to have given her all his large winnings at the last Grand Prix de Paris. At present he found the house unoccupied and a note from his wife saying that she had left him, and he never need search for her, as she would not return. She had prepared an extra large lot of sewing for the children, and said in the note that she would be where she could exercise a watchful eye over them. Further investigation showed that she had gone down street, transferred the bank account to his name, without drawing a cent, and then went to an attorney and deeded the home to him also. She had taken nothing away with her, and arrangements about the house indicated that she had long contemplated the step. Mr. Miller has no idea what prompted her to leave.

A WIFE'S PECCULAR ACTIONS.

She Transfers Money and Property to Her Husband and Disappears.

TOLEDO, March 6.—A remarkable and peculiar case of separation has occurred in East Toledo. For years Mr. and Mrs. H. Miller of Platt street have lived together apparently happy and contented. They have three children. They owned a nice property, which was in Mrs. Miller's name, and several hundred dollars were lying in one of the banks, the account being also carried in the wife's name. A day or two ago Mr. Miller came home as usual to his meal at an hour when the children were at school.

He found the house unoccupied and a note from his wife saying that she had left him, and he never need search for her, as she would not return. She had prepared an extra large lot of sewing for the children, and said in the note that she would be where she could exercise a watchful eye over them. Further investigation showed that she had gone down street, transferred the bank account to his name, without drawing a cent, and then went to an attorney and deeded the home to him also. She had taken nothing away with her, and arrangements about the house indicated that she had long contemplated the step. Mr. Miller has no idea what prompted her to leave.

A Ruling Regarding Assessors.

COLUMBUS, March 6.—Chief Election Supervisor Taylor, in response to a query from Coalton, has made an important interpretation of a section of the ballot law, which provides that when supervisors divide an election precinct, no additional assessors shall be chosen, unless it is so ordered. Section 1448, revised statutes, provides that there shall be an assessor for each precinct. Supervisor Taylor holds that the new ballot law suspends Section 1448, and that the supervisor may or may not order an additional assessor, or they may at any subsequent time take action in the matter.

Mail Clerks Win Medals.

CINCINNATI, March 6.—Medals, according to rank in excellence at the last examination, were awarded here to the railway clerks of the Fifth division as follows: First, to Q. O. Claproad, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati; Second, to J. C. Edgerton, Grafton and Cincinnati; Third, to S. G. Sander, Toledo and St. Louis; Fourth, to J. W. Kelly, Chicago and Louisville; Fifth, to J. C. Kennedy, Cincinnati and Nashville. The above are named in the order of their percentages. The chief clerks of the division met and decided to award medals for excellence hereafter.

A Yokohama special says:

The Japanese third division occupied An-Shong-Cheng on the morning of March 2. The Chinese made no opposition.

The Chinese ships captured by the Japanese at Wei-Hai-Wei have arrived here. Good reports are made in regard to raising the vessels that were sunk by the Japanese fleet. The Japanese have abandoned the Shan-Tung promontory after destroying the forts at Wei-Hai-Wei.

Howie, the American captured at Wei-Hai-Wei, after violating his oath not to help the Chinese, has been brought to Japan for trial.

A Business Block Blown Up.

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 6.—The bookkeepers in the office of Amos Whiteley & Co., in this city, have been busy for some time making a report of the business done by the company in the last 15 years, to be sent to the proposed English purchasers of the shops. Mr. Whiteley arrived in New York, Saturday morning from England, but it is not yet known what was done with regard to the purchase of the shops, but as he arrives in this city probably today, the full results of his visit to Europe will no doubt be known by that time.

To Be Sent to English Purchasers.

HAMILTON, O., March 6.—The bookkeepers in the office of Amos Whiteley & Co., in this city, have been busy for some time making a report of the business done by the company in the last 15 years, to be sent to the proposed English purchasers of the shops. Mr. Whiteley arrived in New York, Saturday morning from England, but it is not yet known what was done with regard to the purchase of the shops, but as he arrives in this city probably today, the full results of his visit to Europe will no doubt be known by that time.

Prosecuted by the Food Commissioner.

MILWAUKEE, March 6.—Albert, Herman and Bayard Bradford have been arraigned in the common pleas court charged with murder in the second degree, for the killing of A. D. Stone at Lilly Chapel several months ago. They entered pleas of not guilty, and upon motion of their attorneys, the case was continued until the next term of court.

They were placed under bonds of $5,000 each, which they furnished and were released.

Incorporated In Ohio.

COLUMBUS, March 6.—The following articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the secretary of state: Pokrov Union No. 542; Equitable Aid Union, Cleveland; Milan, Birmingham and Elvira railroad, Birmingham, capital stock $100,000; Parma Protective society, Parma; Bloomdale Creamery company, Bloomdale, capital stock $10,000.

Appointed by Governor McKinley.

COLUMBUS, March 6.—The governor has reappointed A. B. Cole of Ross county a member of the board of managers of the Ohio penitentiary, for the term ending March 31, 1900, and Mrs. Mary V. Proctor of Lebanon, as a member of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans home, Xenia.

Chinese Soldiers Pillaging.

LONDON, March 6.—Under date of Tien-Tsin the Times today publishes a dispatch, saying that disturbances are increasing. One of the Chinese generals in the Shan-Tung province was headed by his soldiers for attempting to suppress pillage. Similar troubles are reported at Hanan Liao-Yang, near Mookden, which is probably real.

A Rescue.

About midday on Sunday, March 5, 1883, the passenger steamer James D. Parker attempted to shoot the rapids in the Indiana channel of the Ohio at Louisville. The moment she entered the chute the lookout in the station house of life saving crew No. 10 had a premonition that she was going to have trouble and gave the alarm. Instantly the lifeboats Ready and Reckless were manned and started off in the track of the steamer, the oarsmen pulling with a will and the boats outrunning the current. The imperiled steamer was a stern wheeler, and the weight of her cargo being in front, on reaching the incline of the channel her wheel and rudders could not get a grip on the current by which she could be managed and steered. After a few moments her bow disappeared under water; then she careened to starboard, her smokestacks toppled over, and a cloud of steam arose from her like the vapor of an explosion. In bumping against the rocks her stern was knocked off, and swinging out into the channel she sank in 18 feet of water. Groups of terrified passengers, women and children among them, rushed from the cabins on deck. The roof had fallen, and boxes and barrels tumbled to the decks below. The whole affair took place inside of ten minutes, but the vessel had barely gone down after striking the last rock when the life savers, all steaming and reddened from their life and death pull, were alongside with the Ready and Reckless. A gangplank was made by twisting off a cabin door, and upon that women and children, the first to be saved, were helped into the boats. Some of the impatient passengers, doubting the prowess of the life savers, jumped into the rapids and were swept down stream, but these were picked up after 12 loads had been taken from the wreck, and out of 105 souls on board not a life was lost.

SIBLEY'S NEW PARTY.

An Address Issued to the American People.

THE MONEY QUESTION DOMINANT.

It Will Remain the Leading Issue Until Rightly Settled—Silver Men of All Parties Should All Unite—Sibley Suggested For the Presidency.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The American Bimetallic league, which has been in conference here, has issued its address to the people for the formation of a new party, as it was predicted it would in these dispatches yesterday. A statement of the issues on which the new party will organize, preceded the address, which reads as follows:

The money question is now indisputably the dominant issue in the United States and will remain so until settled and settled rightly. Other questions, however important, must wait for this, which, to a greater or less extent, involves all others. The issue is between the gold standard, gold bonds and bank currency, on the one side, and the bimetallic standard, no bonds and government currency, on the other.

First.—On this issue we declare ourselves to be unalterably opposed to the single gold standard, and demand the immediate return to the constitutional standard of gold and silver, by the restoration by this government independently of any foreign power, of the unrestricted coining of both silver and gold into standard money, at the ratio of 16 to 1, and upon terms of exact equality; the silver coin to be a full legal tender, equal with gold, for all debts and dues, public and private.

Second.—We hold that the power to control and regulate a paper currency is inseparable from the power to coin money; and hence that all currency intended to circulate as money should be issued, and its volume controlled, by the general government only, and should be legal tender.

Third.—We are unalterably opposed to the issue by the United States of interest-bearing bonds in the time of peace, and demand the payment of all our obligations of the United States as provided by existing laws, in either gold or silver coin, at the option of the government, and not at the option of the creditor.

"On this issue we appeal from the dictation of the money power to the intelligence and patriotism of the American people."

The address makes a long argument on the above basis and says that silver Democrats or silver Republicans can expect nothing from their party; neither will silver Democrats join the silver wing of the Republican party, nor silver Republicans join the silver wing of the Democratic party; neither will either join the Populists on account of objectionable features in their platform. The only hope for silver is for the silver men in all parties to organize a new party. The address further says:

If the conference had authority from the people to name a candidate for president, it would name Joseph C. Sibley of Pennsylvania, but not having such authority, it can only suggest the same, and invite expressions from the people by petition, resolutions or otherwise, believing that nominations when made should reflect in the most direct manner the will of the people, uncontrolled by caucus machinery or by professional politicians.

Petitions or letters endorsing this should be addressed to General A. J. Warner, chairman of the executive committee, American Bimetallic party, Sun building, Washington, D. C.

"We pray you not to let the settlement of this question go beyond the election of 1886, but, subordinating all question for the time being to this, the supreme issue, settle this now, and settle it forever. And we especially urge upon you the importance of immediate organization in townships and counties throughout the entire country, for the purpose of carrying on this great movement for the common good of all."

It is signed by the following executive committee, appointed by the Bimetallic conference: A. J. Warner, president American Bimetallic league, chairman; John P. Jones, United States senator; William M. Stewart, United States senator; J. L. McLaurin, South Carolina; Anson Wolcott, Indiana; George G. Merrick, Colorado; Henry Jones, Georgia; J. C. Green, California; Joseph Sheldon, Connecticut; C. J. Hillyer, District of Columbia; Byron E. Shear, Colorado, and Mortimer Whitehead of New Jersey.

A committee was appointed to select a provisional national committee to consist of one member from each state and territory and the District of Columbia, to take charge of this movement in the several states and territories, as follows: General A. J. Warner, president American Bimetallic league, chairman; Hon. William Stewart, United States senator; Henry Jones, Georgia; Hon. Francis G. Newlands, Nevada; Hon. Anson Wolcott, Indiana; and Hon. John L. McLaurin of South Carolina.

A committee was appointed to select a provisional national committee to consist of one member from each state and territory and the District of Columbia, to take charge of this movement in the several states and territories, as follows: General A. J. Warner, president American Bimetallic league, chairman; Hon. William Stewart, United States senator; Henry Jones, Georgia; Hon. Francis G. Newlands, Nevada; Hon. Anson Wolcott, Indiana; and Hon. John L. McLaurin of South Carolina.

It is understood that it is the desire of the league that a Republican should receive the nomination for vice president.

NEW SHAPES.
What Some of the Potteries Are Doing.

The miserable weather has done much to delay the work at the factory of the Thomas company, and but little has been done for several weeks. It is expected, however, that the new factory will be completed and occupied by May 1. When this is done the works will have few equals for convenience.

A reporter called at the Dresden yesterday afternoon, and learned that the officials expect to have the improvements completed by March 15. The workmen are now engaged on a new dinner set, and a handsome toilet set will appear in a short time.

Burford Bros. are doing a good business, and expect to have a new shape on the market within a month.

Kenova is the name given a shape which has recently made its appearance at Goodwin's. It is pretty, and is attracting attention.

The new dinner shape Corea, recently put out by the Standard, is making abundant work at the factory, and all the shops are running full time.

Novelties in decoration are the order of the day at the Union, and the run of trade is so good that all the officials are smiling.

Roxton, a dinner set, and Linden, a toilet, are the new shapes at Vodrey's. They are neat, and make a good appearance.

The East Liverpool Pottery company have a fine looking shape in the Antonia, a new addition to the line of ware manufactured at that plant.

At the Brunt pottery improvements have recently been made in two decorating kilns, and new shapes have been introduced. Celery trays, jardinières and cracker jars of graceful and attractive form have recently been put out, and are meeting with approbation.

Inquiry and observation developed that while a few potteries are only working half their force the majority are working full time. Those not supplied with orders are getting along very well making stock, and there seems little doubt in their minds that it will be sold.

The new Penova ware recently put on the market by the Specialty Glass company is one of the successes of the year, and enough of it cannot be made to meet the demand. The factory is having a good run.

LOTS OF LIGHTNING.

An Electric Appliance on a Street Car Burns Out.

Street car No. 30 was on a rampage last night, and for a time there was a pyrotechnical display which beat any ordinary Fourth of July celebration. The car was in charge of Motorman McKinnon and as it crossed the railroad at Second street, going west, one of the wires in the machinery burned out. The car was full of smoke, and when Motorman Marsh, whose car met No. 30 on the switch, investigated, he found the cause of the trouble and also that a lot of rubbish under one of the seats had in some mysterious manner become ignited.

The sparks were extinguished, and Marsh started to take the car to the power house for repairs. Just after the railroad was crossed again, and while Repairer Pittenger was examining the machines, there was a flash that filled the car and blinding the passengers, made them think they were getting a breath from the infernal regions.

At the power house the car succeeded in blowing a plug and slipping down the track came near colliding with Motorman Brandenburg's car which was following. No great damage was done, but the passengers were several times scared.

Surprised the Candidate.

A man whose name is known all over the county was in town yesterday, and being a candidate he called at the office of the News Review for the purpose of making an announcement.

He expressed some surprise when presented with a bill for $5, and remarked that in Salem they only charged him $2. He cheerfully paid the bill and smiled when the remark was made that he had his card in a Salem daily at weekly rates because it was a weakly paper, and this recalled the boast of the Salem paper when it based its claim to being the "leading Republican paper of the county" on the number of announcements in its columns. The price has something to do with it even when a candidate is concerned.

Stricken With Paralysis.

David Orr, a well known resident of the West End, was stricken with paralysis yesterday morning, and is in a dangerous condition. His entire left side is paralyzed and one eye was affected, although it was not so bad today. Mr. Orr is a driver in the employ of J. M. Aten, and his age is against his chances for recovery.

LOCAL BREVIETIES.

A well known young clubman will be the victim of a surprise party this evening.

The household goods of John Punick were sent to Lexington, W. Va., today.

George Matheny has moved from the Burton residence on Third street to the Will Green property on Walnut street.

Bertha, the little daughter of John Grant, of the East End, was bitten by a small dog belonging to the family the other day, and the canine was killed forthwith.

An unmanageable horse attached to a light wagon made sport for a crowd of boys on Jackson street yesterday evening. The youngsters almost caused a runaway.

The Connors-Golding case comes up in court on Thursday next and will be a hard fought legal battle. A number of depositions have been taken, and it is likely that several new witnesses will be summoned.

Lillian Russell is at one of the Pittsburgh theaters this week, and several parties have gone from this city to see the gifted actress. A party enjoyed her last evening, and another is listed for tomorrow night.

People who are in position to know say that the recent decision of the supreme court in the electric patent matter will bring down the price of telephones, and the companies using the Bell will have to come to the low mark.

W. B. Donaldson, of Steubenville, has brought action in Squire Travis' court against Edward Barrett, of this city, to recover $60 claimed due for house and water rent. The case is set for hearing on Friday morning next at 8 o'clock.

It has been a long time since this city was treated to a rendition of "Ten Nights in a Bar room," by a local company. The Rechabites are arranging for the production of the play at the Grand in the near future, and are already selling tickets for the event.

Constable Albright was wading through the snow today posting notices of the township election. There are to be chosen two justices, one treasurer, six supervisors, one assessor and one trustee. There are a number of announcements for the positions.

Several weeks ago Miss Della Tolson went from this city to her home in Salineville very ill with fever. Soon after reaching home her father was taken with the same disease, and word was received here last night that he could not recover. Meantime the lady is getting better. She was employed in this city.

The gate tender at the Second street crossing is still having plenty of trouble with the safety gates, and is living in the hope that spring will soon come to permanently thaw out the frozen ground. No sooner have the gates been put in proper working order than they freeze up, and each morning finds them stationary.

Motormen on the street railway would like to see stringent measures adopted, and some heavy punishment provided for boys who insist on jumping cars. So bold have some of the youngsters become in the West End that they will jump on a car when it is going at full speed. Motormen have no opportunity to keep the boys from the rear steps of a car, and they fear that some day one of them will be killed.

The snow storm came last night at 10 o'clock, and continued without interruption until morning when the ground bore several inches of the beautiful. Perhaps the snow would have passed without great notice had not the general sweeping in front of business houses attracted attention. A number of merchants, taking a lesson from the annoyance of the late thaw, swept the snow into the gutter early in the morning, and endeavored to keep the walks clear during the day.

A bare headed woman with any quantity of gore in her eye and a piece of cloth, presumably a part of a man's coat, grasped firmly in one hand, was one of the sights on Second street last night. Residents in that neighborhood say a large family row occurred, and for a time it looked as if it would be necessary to call the police. There is no need of wasting sympathy in this case, however, as the wife is more often the aggressor than the abused if all accounts are true, and she is fully competent to hold her own.

When he attended the World's Fair T. O. Timmons saw the painters spraying the walls, and he conceived the idea of applying the same principle to the decoration of crockery. He came home and made the test so successfully that he now has in his possession several excellent specimens of his skill. One is a vase of Lotus ware covered with veins and marks such as are found on a piece of gold quartz. He believes that Miss Fry, mentioned in the News Review as being credited with the discovery, is a little behind the times.
